

PETER LANG

Style Sheet for the Linguistic Insights series

1. General information

The volume will be published in the Peter Lang series Linguistic Insights: Studies in Language and Communication, for which the submission of camera-ready copies is in order. It is therefore important that typographical indications should be followed as closely as possible already in the first draft of your paper.

Contributors should send a printout of their paper; at the same time, an electronic version on floppy disk should be submitted. Please write the name of the programme you used on the disk itself. The file name should be the same as your surname. All major word processors (Mac and/or PC) are acceptable. Authors planning to use less well-known programs are invited to contact the editors beforehand.

When writing your text please remember to:

- use single line spacing;
- number the pages progressively (in the heading);
- indent paragraphs (1 cm); however, there should be no indentation after section headings, a blank line, a table, a graph or an indented quotation;
- insert notes at the foot of the relevant page.¹

Finally, may we remind you that it is the author's responsibility to obtain any permission required for the use of material owned by others. If applicable, credit lines should appear in a footnote at the beginning of the paper.

1 If footnotes are more than one line long, there should be a hanging indent. There should be no gap between footnotes. Within the text, the footnote reference number should follow the word in question or a punctuation mark, with no blank space.

2. Type area

The type area is 110 x 170 mm. The type area remains the same throughout the book. It does not include the page number. On an A4 page, margins should be set as follows: upper margin: 6.3 cm; lower margin: 6.4 cm; left and right margins: 5 cm; heading: 5.3 cm; foot: 1.5 cm. The entire text, including bibliography and footnotes, must be justified with the exception of titles and headings, which should be ranged left.

3. Type size (font: Times New Roman)

- CONTRIBUTOR'S NAME: 11 pt (small capitals), ranged left.
- Title of contribution: 15 pt, ranged left with one blank line in main text size above and four beneath.
- Main text: 11 pt (the same applies to blank lines).
- Footnotes, indented quotations, tables and captions: 9 pt.
- Subheadings: 13 pt, ranged left with three blank lines above and two beneath.
- Lower-order headings: 11 pt italic with two blank lines above and one beneath.
- Even lower-order headings: 11 pt italic with one blank line above and ½ line (i.e. 5.5 pt) beneath.
- If one heading follows immediately after another, the 'space above' the second heading is omitted.
- Do not end a title or heading with a full stop. Capitalize only the first letter of the first word and of those words which the orthography of the language in use requires to begin with a capital letter.

4. Quotations in the text

Short quotations (2-3 lines) are placed in the text between double quotation marks “ ”. E.g.:

Coates observes that: “At its strongest should takes on the meaning of moral obligation, or duty (defined in moral or legal terms). At its weakest, it merely offers advice, if subjective, or describes correct procedure, if objective” (1983: 59).

Please remember that quotation marks and apostrophes should be rounded, as in the example, not straight. For longer quotations leave an empty line before and after the quotation and reduce left margin by 1 cm.; do not use quotation marks, underlined words or boldface. Omissions should be signalled with three dots between square brackets: [...]. Square brackets are also used to signal remarks by the author. E.g.:

Palmer (1988: 141-142), suggests that the deontic meaning of shall is permanently associated with a performative value:

SHALL is [...] different from deontic MAY and MUST in that it does not permit or oblige someone else, usually the addressee, to act, but guarantees that the speaker will act. But it is deontic in the essential characteristic that it influences or directs behaviour and that it is performative [my italics].

Both the text and the footnotes should be justified, so throughout the text word-breaks should be avoided. Meanings should be placed between single quotation marks, whereas highlighted items or items in languages different from the one of the paper are in italics. E.g.:

Concerning the semantic distinction between wilfully and willingly, we find that the Oxford English Dictionary provides the meaning of “deliberately [...] occasionally implying ‘maliciously’” for the former.

5. Citations

When referring to a text, indicate the surname of the author followed, in brackets, by the year of publication of the essay, colon, space and page number of the quotation. E.g.:

Malkiel (1959: 126) sees five types of semantic relationship [...]

Give page numbers in full, do not use ‘f.’ or ‘ff.’; always give the full author-date citation – do not use ‘op.cit.’, ‘loc.cit’, or ‘ibidem’.

6. Tables and graphs

Text within tables should be ranged left. Numbers should be centred on the decimal point. Do not use colour to indicate different values, but arrange the table and graph so that it is legible in black and white. Graphics may be submitted in all major graphic file formats, though it is advisable to contact the editors beforehand.

Tables and graphs are to be numbered consecutively and be given titles (captions). These should appear below the table / graph; e.g.

| Central modal verbs | Occurrences |
|----------------------------|--------------------|
| SHALL | 246 |
| MAY | 41 |
| WILL | 6 |
| MIGHT | 4 |
| CAN | 3 |
| SHOULD | 3 |
| MUST | 1 |
| COULD | 0 |
| WOULD | 0 |

Table 1. Number of occurrences of central modals in EModE statutes.

7. Examples and lists

All examples should be numbered progressively (do not re-start in each subsection); e.g.

(50) Wee Your Majesties most dutifull and loyall Subjects the Commons assembled in Parliament have cheerfully and unanimously given and granted and doe hereby give and grant unto Your Majesty (E3-S2)

(51) I would gladly see him, but (P. Henry's letter to his wife)

Items in lists should also be numbered or, alternatively, be preceded by a dot; e.g.:

In particular, students were assessed on their reading competencies with reference to:

- extracts from academic textbooks, including both British and American college-level economics textbooks;
- the business and financial press, represented by articles taken from business and finance sections of The Economist.

8. References

Bibliographical references are listed alphabetically at the end of the contribution. Please make sure entries correspond to the authors cited in your paper. Such entries should include: the surname and full name of the author, followed by the year of publication of the text and other data, as shown in the following examples. E.g.:

i) books

Brown, Penelope / Levinson, Stephen C. 1987. Politeness. Some Universals in Language Usage. Cambridge: Cambridge University Press.
